SOLOMONS, the sole inventor of the Improved pectacles, and various Improved Glasses, is now on a rolessional tour to this place, and may be consulted at is office.

NO. 74 FOURTH STREET, LOUISVILLE, KY.

LOUISVILLE, KY.

Such is the superiority of these Glasses, that persons using inflamed or weak eyes may instantly be relieved using them, and they possess the property of preving the preclous organ of sight to the most adneed period of life, while they enable both the old of the young to pursue the most minute employment any length of time, either by day or candlelight. He will give references to people in the United States to have found the greatest benefit and confort in the coff his newly-invented and improved Spectacles. NEW DISCOVERY FOR DEAFNESS! The SOUND CONCENTRATOR is an extraordinary, powerful, newly-invented, small Instrument, for the enr-of extreme cases of Deafness, entirely different in make or construction from all others, and surpassing anything that has been or probably ever can be produced. The unpleasant sensation of ringing noises in the part is entirely removed, and the Concentrator affords to individuals afflicted with this dreadful maladr all the assistance that can possibly be desired.

I hereby certify that the Bye Glasses shown me by Solomons are superior in finish and less obstructing my perfect vision than any I have ever examined, and heerfully recommend them to all in need of Glasses. One year ago, my Dora, darling, And on a sweet calm night like this, Upon our Ed lie's death-cold brow, Imprinted we our parting kiss.

I closer pressed thee to my heart, As on his cheek my hot tears fell, And forced my falt'ring lips to say, Oh, God! "thou doest all things well"-But when, from that calm dreamless sleep.

I knew my boy could ne'er awake, My heart in wild rebellion rose, Its every chord I thought would break; I felt that life possessed no charm— Earth wore no beauty then for me; I seem at a lonely shipwrecked thing,

Upon a dark and stormy sea-Without an aim, without a hope, Unblest by e'en a dream of joy. And in my siniul madness prayed That I might sleep beside my boy.
I turned and through my blinding tears
I saw thee. Dora, darling child,

Close by my side, unconscious all With woud ring eyes you looked and smiled. "Mother, how long our Eddie sleeps;" You said to me. "So many honrs; To-morrow morn will be awake,

And go with me to gather flowers? I told thee then, and tell thee now. He'll ever gather fadeless flowers Within the gardens sweet of Heaven. Our Eddie came with summer time

A bud of beauty, promise, pride, Among its blooms awhile he staid, And 'mid Its fading sweets he dfed. Thon'rt all that's left me, daughter dear, Thy mother's lonely heart to bless; And tho' we're severed, at times I feel The ecstasy of thy caress. Ah, yes! and tho' the 'chastening rod'

Has fallen heavy oft on me.
The hand that wounded still hath left A precious, priceless, boom in thee.
When spring shall come, the joyous spring. With all its wealth of beanteons flowers;

Within dark, cool, and twining bowers, I'll go where sweet wild vlolets bloom,

And of their perfumed blossoms weave A wreath to deck our Eddle's tomb, And as thy little fingers twine, A vision bright I know II be given;

The old Bible, and the old interpre-And, intends to make a party race of it, which d stresses the editor of the organ very much. Let | in the faith, will not do for these modern Chrishim and the Know-Nothings generally administer a signal rebuke to the Democracy by supporting and voting for Mr. Bullitt. He is not to blame for our action. He is simply a candi date for the office, and wall not object if all the Know Nothings vote for him; on the contrary. he would be glad to see it. Let us, then, have an example of action in accordance with the lofty expressions of the organ. Now is the time to give a shining proof of the high moral of that party that rose on the ruins and corruptions of the old parties. Let the brethren show that the s perstructure of the party is not like the found it in -ruins and corruption. It is no matter want Democrats do; the holy Know Nothings need not follow all the bad examples set in the country. This, however, seems to be their mission, according to the organ. If the Democrats are charged with any mein thing, straightw. v the Know-Nothings proceed to do something still me ner; and when charged with it, they have but one excuse, and that is that Democrats did it. Indeed, when they (the brethren) desire to do a mean thing-and they are generally affleted with that desire-they prepare for it by propagating the story that the Democrats did it somewhere.

We expect them now to reform slightly. They haven't long to live, and should show some computation on their death bed, and not follow bad eximples; so all this parade of what the Democrat has done is all irrelevant. Let the saints do their duty, no matter what the sinlu Demograts may intend. Let them vote for Mr Ba'iitt, who is a Democrat, but an independ ent candidate, and lewill thank any of his fel low-cit zens for their votes ; and if elected, he will be the judge of law, and not of one party or another. Let the K. N.'s show that they are a d.s derested, magnanimons party, who have no object but to elect good men; no matter what other parties may do.

They had encamped about miles below Parowan, the last southern settation, under which millions have lived and died lement on the road to San Bernardino befor ming to the new settlement of Los Vegas, where they were waiting for the mail to com p. The place selected for their camp was at he foot of a perpendienlar ledge of rocks in the to absorb their highest thoughts; they being, icinity of some bushes. About four o'clock in bird in the hand is worth two in the bush," and he morning, the moon shining brightly at the ime, the attacking party crept up and fired down on them from the top of the rock. Ta-bin was shot through the head, the ball entering close under the eye, passing diagonally through the nose and cheek, and lodging in his neek tion. They openly stand up in the sacred desk He was also shot in five other places, and left for and rail at the most sacred institutions in civil The other men escaped into the bushes government. In this Union is bound up the one of them, however, having been shot in th world's highest hopes of rational liberty. The bick of the neck, and another having had tw wisest statesmen have looked upon its destiny fingers shot off. When the party returned to he camp they found that Tobin was alive, and reckless aspirants for political and theological with the assistance of the mail party, who so vertook them, they carried him along with

hem. From the reports it is somewhat doubt ul whether he recovers. This Tobin was Orderly Sergeant in Capt Morris' command, U.S. A., which served as m scort to Capt. Gunnison, when he was kille on the plains. After his murder the comman vintered at Great Salt Lake City, and during their sojourn in Zion, Tobin at one and the and impressed with the charms al Alice Young laughter of the Prophet Brigham. He em aced the first object of his adoration, and wa al to believe, by the wily prophet, that, in th ullness of time, he would be permitted to em-orace the second. After serving out his en-istment he returned here last Spring, brimful flove and Mormonism, and figured extensive vas employee and confident of Brigham, an ofessor of the Art of War, drilling reernits to erve in the expected collision between the United States and Mormondom, provided the coming Administration does not shirk the uestion as the outgoing one has for the pas ur years. To return to Tobin: the current of rne love with him, as with all beroes, ran wit ripple, and various reasons are assigned wh he fair Alice took sanctuary in the arms of me Hiram Clawson, where some three or for oves had nestled before her. The gallant To in sought consolation in the arms of a Ma Rich; but even the charms of love and consola tions of religion failed to satisfy his ambitions longings. He found it best to make a journey

In other words, as we say here, "the country seame unhealthy for him." Unfortunately however, he had been a "leetle" too deeply in titted into the mysteries of Mormonism to be ermitted to leave the country, after his clos olled in their blankets, and the bandits fired: eir heads, but most of the shots were nime oo high. Their boots and shoes being at their leads; under the blankets, deceived the assail ape. They counted fifty-six bullet holes in heir blankets, and what was quite significant he balls were from revolvers of the navy size. The Mormons here, in speaking of this ransaction, wink their eyes to earli other, and may, "The Indians are very had on the lower road." There is no doubt but the attack was planned in this city, and that orders were sen from here to execute it. It was said publicly by the Mormous, immediately after the party left the city, that they would not live to ge through to California, and reports came in several days in advance of the mail that they ha killed Tobin, and probably spoke of it to som erson on their return. The Mormons do no esitate to publicly proclaim that no apostate hall be permitted to escape from their eam unity "to tell their d-d tales about them. We were disposed to regard these threats as mere expedients to frighten us, but are forced o the conclusion that they intend to carry then to execution. With the mail that left for the States on the st inst., was Horace S. Eldridge, who has gone o St. Louis to take charge of that State of Zion and if possible re-light the Luminary (a Mor mon paper), which was extinguished for wan er fuel last season.

S. Wil-liams his daughter, who is not yet fourteen years of age. In order that you may comprehend the ease, I must give you a short sketch of Thomas S. Williams and his family. His father is rom the beginning of their career, and is, more over, a conspicuous member of the Danite Band His grand-father, old as he i-, has been "seal ed" to three young women within the last few weeks. A few days since I met him coming from Brigham's office, with a young girl, apparently same sixteen or seventeen years old, to whom he had just been "scaled." His son, from his own story, was "whipped into Mormonism when he was only ten years old." The early lessons, thus foreibly inculcated, had their effect, and he has ever since—until within the last few months, head of fem suproter and delast few months—been a firm supporter and devoted advocate, fighting their battles and contributing his means most liberally to the Mor-mon cause. Presuming, perhaps, upon his long standing in the Church, and upon the important ervices he had rendered, he showed too much dependence of spirit for a subservient follow er of the immaculate Prophet, and Brigham in dertook to check his growing arrogance. The attempt, lastead of humbling, only produced an obstinate resistance, which finally led to his exulsion from the Church. They hoped, by thes

On entering his house he found his more incorrigible than ever, they tried, without wife in tears and very much frightened. She wail, to coax and bribe him back. Even this failed, and he commenced making preparations to leave the Territory. It had been repeatedly said by Mormons that he would not be permitted to leave here in peace, but we could not see where the obstruction was to come from. The meeting of the first district will be held on was to come when every one not with them would be well-end on the play.

THE YOUNG MEN'S DEMOCRATIC CLUB Meeting at Meadquarters ON TUESDAY NIGHT, 26TH.

The Democracy are requested to assemble en masse at their Hall, in Fifth street, or next Tuesday evening. It is highly impor tant that every Ward has a full representa tion present. We have need of conference and association, and we hope every Demo crat and Old-Line Whig will give his pres ence on this oceasion. The President of the Association announced at the last meetin, that the election for officers of the Young Men's Democratic Club, the appointment of Committees, &c., would be in order at the next meeting of the Club. Turn out ! Turn

TThe Democrat is the only Sunday paper in Louisville, and is furnished to all parts of the city at a cost of TEN CENTS per week! There are hundreds who would cheerfully pay tha amount for the news in the Sunday issue alone Let all such subscribe, and they will be fur nished with the Democrat every day in the week (except Monday) at that cheap rate Our carriers are prompt and efficient, and will be happy to receive the names of all who may wish to subscribe.

THE CONCERT.—The audience last night was anything but as large as it should have been as the music merited. Mad. La Grange has aut been pecuniarily successful here: first, he cause she has not been here before; second, be cause of the great attraction at the Theater and third, and chiefly, because she did no charge enough. If the price of tickets had been two dollars instead of one, the audience would have been twier as large. If artists wish to catel the fashionable people of Louisville, they mucharge two prices, not less than two or thre dollars. If they want the mechanic and labor ing classes, only fifty cents. We throw this not as a hint.

DEPARTURE OF THE MECHANIC FIRE COMPANY The Mechanic Fire Company, No. 1, of thi city, will leave this city by the mail-box Jacob Strader, accompanied us far as Madiso by a large delegation from the Fire Depart ment, upon their visit to Baltimore. The take their beautiful engine with them, and wil be accompanied by the New Albany Band While in Bultimore they will be the guests of the Deptford Fire Company.

TPDavid Lewis, known as Yankee Dave who was committed in this city at the time a an accompliee of Bennett, who was hung i this city for murder, was before the Police Court yesterday upon the complaint of Marga ret Cook, who charged him with assaulting he in her own house, in Marshall street. The Court held them both to bail in $200 for their good behavior.

THE LICENSE QUESTION .- Such merchant as have been warranted for a failure to take on liceuses, will have their cases decided in Police Court to-morrow, (Monday). The Councils, t whom the question was referred, refuse i inter, ere, and the whole matter, therefore, re verts to the City Court. Parties interested chou'd appear before that tribunal to-morrow.

PRESBYTERIAN HERALD, DAILY .- The Presby terian Herald will be issued daily during the ses the Assembly at Lexington, at 50 the edition. It will contain a full report of the proceedings, and should be in the hands of ev ery one interested in the drings of the Assem bly. The number before us, the first, is very creditable to the publishers and reporters.

Mr. Casseday's LECTURE. - We had the pleas we of listening to the lecture on corals by Mr. Casseday, at the High School, on Chestnu street, last night. It was very interesting, the subject being set forth in a graphic manner by the lecturer and illustrated by excellent diagrams. We hope that Mr. C. may be induced to lee ture again before our citizens.

There is policy in getting a good article when you get any; it may cost more in some cases, at first, still it proves cheaper in the long ruu; but when you can get one of Webster's inimitable likenesses for the same price tha you can get them elsewhere, we "unhesitatingly sav" theirs is the cheapest, first and last

PUBLIC SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—We direct the attention of our readers to the notice else where, of the examinations of the public schools to the city of Louisville. They will be condu ted during the month of June, commencing at the Portland school on the morning of June the lst, at co'clock.

The women seem to be asserting their rights in our Police Court. The docket vesterday contained the names of several of the stronger-minded. Mary Trainor, Bridget Brown, and Ann Mckiuncy were sent to the work-house upon charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Another negro in the city has been lucky in the purchase of a lottery licket during the past week, drawing $750. The boy belonged to Mr. Peaslee, the coffee-house man, and the money was yesterday deposited to the credit of Mr. P. at Brown & Co.'s office.

The New York and Eric Railroad.

Some of the Inducements to the traveling and ipping public possessed by the road have just en suggested to us. In brief, they are sumned up thus: The road involves a saving of wenty-two miles in advance; it possesses proad guage and wide cars; the cars run through New York without change, an advantage ot enjoyed by any other route; the liability if missing connections on eastern-bound trains neident to all other routes, is avoided on this ine, it having no connections to make; libera's ime is always given for meals at dining staions, whether the trains are on or off time, a omfort not usual on other lines; passenger, woid the daily annoyance of a large local pasage travel, so common on all other lines, exoress trains being run expressly to accommo late the through travel, stopping only for wood and water; consequently a through passenge will in almost all cases have a wide seat to imself over the entire line. The above are out a few of the inducements offered to travelers by the New York and Eric Railroad Cominy; other advantages are well known to the public, and we only enumerate the above for he benefit of the untraveled. This road has ecome one of the great institutions of the ountry, and eastern travelers rarely leave it, ut from the fact that some local consideration ttracts them for the time to another route. At Evanished the canal, this could is alroady in very high reputs—being considered, by those who thave examined and itself it, decidedly superior to any coal yet discovered in the West, and always commanding, fit the same markets with them, a higher price than other Western coals. It is a hundsome article, rich in fittuninous matter, yields largely of cas, and makes excellent coke for foundery purposes, as has been tuity shown by experiment within the last twelve months. Such is the demand for it by the foundaries and other manufacturing establishments, to say nothing of the demand for family consumption, that the proprietors, with all their available mining capital, have not been able, thus far, to bring the Eupply to one teath part of the demand. The Mine is now in complete working order, with two entries, rallways, mining implements, cars, boats, &c. No Mine can be worked cheaper—it being drained by a water level, the coal drawn out by mules and tipped into boats from the mouths of the entries, and no steam or water power, nor expensive machinery of any kind, required. The cost of coal delivered in the boats is 2½ cents; and the sales, thus far, have averaged from 10 to 12 cents per bashel. The coal-field eminaces near three bundred acres. There are two strates of coals an upper that now being worked, and a lower—the former five feet in thickness, and the laster of a short distance below it) seven feet.
